□Congratulations to Hannah Clinton, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Clinton of 6 Parker Ave., who placed second in the Sunfish Class Championships held on Sunday in Springfield, Ill. Hannah raced in the regular singles competition, and is not qualified for the World Class Competition to be held in Aruba next year. She sails locally with the Hingham Sunfish Club.

□The "Cohasset Rec'ers", a two-team club in the Harris-Wightman League of the NELTA (New England Lawn Tennis Association), will play Abington Thursday, August 16 at 3 p.m. on the Cohasset High School courts for the South Eastern Championship. Winners of the meet will go onto the quarter-finals of the League, facing Metro-Boston. The teams consist of 10 girls and eight boys in the 14-and-under group; Helen Pratt as the non-playing coach; and 12 girls in the 18-and-under group. John Roy, tennis coach for the Recreation Department, is the non-playing coach. The public is encouraged to come out and root for these hard-working young players!

□Navy Machinist's Mate Fireman Guy Ricketts recently returned from a tour of duty in the Mediterranean aboard the frigate USS Donald R. Beary, based in Norfolk, Va.

□Mr. and Mrs. George Baird of Lantern Lane will be moving in late September to Tokyo, Japan where he will establish a new office of Hay Associates, a world-wide management consulting firm. They plan to live there for two or three years. Their children will visit them at Christmas, but will otherwise be stateside in school: Julie, at Smith College in her junior year, and Bob, a freshman at Haverford College in Pennsylvania. The family will reunite in Cohasset during the month of August. Sayonara, and lots of luck!

□Dr. and Mrs. Robert Sceery of 95 Atlantic Ave., hosted a party Saturday in honor of the marriage of their son, Michael, to Helene Petit, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edouard Petit of Paris, France. Mr. and Mrs. Michael Sceery were married July 7 in Normandy, France. They will live in Essex, Conn. next year while Michael completes his last year at Wesleyan. The bride's parents have been guests of the Sceery's.

□Melissa Huntwork of 50 Elm Court donned some authentic 1860's dresses, hand-made for the occasion in the style of Scarlet O'Hara, last Saturday at Fort Warren on George's Island as part of a re-enactment of one of the many Civil War battles. She was among many men and women there in costumes and uniforms of the times who admit they are Civil War "nuts."

□Mr. and Mrs. Byron Tosi of Beach Island Street as cochairmen, will be assisted by Mr. and Mrs. John Larkin Thompson of 268 Jerusalem Rd. in helping to plan a concert benefit on September 20 for the Metropolitan Opera Company's annual spring visit to Boston. The benefit evening will include dinner at the Copley Plaza Hotel for patrons and friends and a performance by four members of La Scala Opera Company, with orchestra and chorus, of a concert version of Verdi's "Requiem." It will end with a reception in the Cabot-Cahners Room at Symphony Hall. The benefit is sponsored by the Boston Opera Association.

□Quincy Bay Race Week '79 ended, unfortunately, with two canceled days out of five, due to foul weather. Local sailors were represented in the Laser Class with Steve Smalzel placing second in Saturday's race and Tim Naimi finishing with the best overall score. Other Cohasset racers were: Diarmuid O'Connell, Lee Vowvitch, Richard Tibbetts, Doug Mitman, and Paul Riley.

John Buckley, son of Raymond and Patricia Buckley of 247 Forest Ave., is participating in two weeks of aviation indoctrination training at Miramar Naval Air Station, San Diego. He is a midshipman from the Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps (NROTC) unit at Maine Maritime Academy, Castine, Maine. Buckley is a 1977 graduate of Cohasset High School.
